On May 6 counsel for the Citizens' League of Irvington and two members of the Executive Com-mittee of the League went before the Board of Excise Commissioners at their stated meeting in Tarrytown. They objected to the granting of a license to Henry Raisch, in Main-st., Irvington, on the ground that his barroom was within 200 feet of the Methodist Church. The distance in a direct line from the church door to the saloon entranced in the curving path from the church to the centre of the sidewalk, along the sidewalk to a point opposite the saloon door, and thence to the saloon, the distance measured 204 feet. This latter measurement was claimed by the applicant to be in accordance with the statute. A committee of the League with counsel attended a meeting of the Excise Hoard on May 13, and after arguments before Justice Busch, the matter was adjourned to the next meeting of the Board in Tarrytown.

A number of truck growers of Hempstead lost upward of 15,000 tomato plants each, white corn and polato crops were cut down to the ground. A similar state of affairs prevalled in Jamaica, where the leans, sweet potatoes and all other tender plants were ruined.

The factional differences in the Presbyterian Church broke out afresh at a meeting of the Board of Trustees at the house of ex-Justice John G. Scheper on Wednesday evening. The matter leaker out yesterday, and it is feared that the dissension which has divided the church into two factions may lead to disastrous results.

The other trustees also tried to get order, but failed, and the meeting broke up in an uproar. The opponents of the Rev. Mr. Maliman say he is too dictatorial, while his friends say that the pastor's enemies are disgruntled because he had not followed their advice in everything. The Presbytery will probably be appealed to in order to harmonize things in the church.

At sunrise yesterday morning the thermometer at Huntington registered 22 degrees. Corn and potato crops were sertously injured, and the farmers are much discouraged over the results. All over Suffolk County the strawberry crop has been ruined. It is not unlikely that before the close of the summer school at Point-o-Woods the proposition to establish a college at Patchogue will have assumed tangible shape. Justus Roe has offered to give a handsome tract of land for a site. At the recent session of the Suffolk County Congregational Association the proposition to build a college was officially indorsed, and the aid and encouragement of the public were asked for the enterprise. The idea of a Long Island college originated with the Rev. A. E. Colton, a Congregational preacher of Patchogue, who was also the first to propose a Long Island Chantaqua. It is estimated that the first college building will cost $5,000, and active measures are being taken to raise that amount in Suffolk County. Dr. Arthur H. Terry is chairman of a committee having this matter in charge. The members are John A. Potter, James H. Mulla, Tremont Hammond, Howard S. Conklin, Justus Roe, Nelson McBride, J. R. Swezey, Charles R.
